The Sanctuary Lamp Burns In Loving
Memory of Lawrence Kabana

By The Ministry of Care

Thanks to everyone who attended the St John Winter Pot-luck Social last Sunday. A good time was had by all. And the food, of course, was delicious and plentiful! A special thank you to those who helped with set-up and clean-up. You are appreciated!

Congratulations to Lesley and Ken Benyo on their 50-50 win! Due to the participation in the 50-50 and your generosity, we were able to donate $50 to Lifeway Family and Pregnancy Center! Thank you!!!

Keep your eyes open for our Spring date!

Would you like to receive a bulletin by mail or email? Would you like to become a member of St. John? Registration forms are on the bookshelf in the Gathering Area. One can be mailed as well.

SERVANTS OF DIVINE MERCY MINISTRY A MINISTRY OF PRAYER FOR THE SICK & DYING

Do you have a loved one who is sick or near the end of life? Our Lord's Mission to proclaim His message of Divine Mercy is that His Mercy is greater than sin, and we are to ask for and trust in His Mercy especially at the hour of our death.

We welcome the opportunity to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy either at the bedside of the sick & dying, or from our homes. To make arrangements, contact us at 724-433-7862 or Servantsofdivinemercygbg@gmail.com

February is Devoted to the Holy Family

"Nothing truly can be more salutary or efficacious for Christian families to meditate upon than the example of this Holy Family, which embraces the perfection and completeness of all domestic virtues." -His Holiness Pope Leo XIII

Take the opportunity this month to pray fervently together as a family as the Holy Family did, placing all your trust in God and His promises.

Join Us For OCIA!
Every Sunday from 11:45 AM- 1PM
(unless otherwise announced) at
Holy Family Church

OCIA If a grave (mortal) sin is committed, the person must receive sacramental confession before receiving Holy Communion. To receive when not in a state of grace causes an even greater sin.

Our gospel reading for these last three Sundays before Lent this year comes from Chapter 6 of Luke's Gospel, known as the Sermon on the Plain. Just like in Matthew's Sermon on the Mount, Jesus lays out the basic Christian ethic. Much of what we hear Jesus say in these passages is going to be challenging; it may even prick our consciences. I encourage everyone to really take to heart what we hear and to continue to reflect upon it as Ash Wednesday approaches. Let these challenging words of the Lord serve as a pre-Lenten examination of conscience so that the grace of the coming Lenten Season may fashion our hearts and minds to be ever more faithful disciples.

I remember one of the priests at my home parish when I was a kid who used to issue the same admonition every year on Ash Wednesday: "Live this Lent as though it were your last." Some of us used to roll our eyes when we heard it; others found it a bit morbid. However, over my years as a priest, I must confess that this sentiment pops into my mind every year around this time. Not in a morbid sense but as a reminder of the importance of being open to grace of the season. Time passes quickly so we must make the most of the days God gives us. In that spirit, as we begin our preparations for the coming Lenten Spring, I share this passage for your reflection from the U.S. Bishops' 1992 Pastoral Letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response: "A true understanding of stewardship begins with taking care of and sharing the gift of time. Stewardship of time involves the realization that none of us 'owns' time. Each of us is given only so much of it, and planning a careful schedule in order to have the time to work, to rest, to play, and to pray is vital in the stewardship of physical, emotional, spiritual, and intellectual lives. In a busy society like ours, time is one of the most precious possessions we have. How we spend our time is perhaps the clearest indication of our progress in a life of Christian discipleship."

According to doctors and our local hospitals, we are at the peak of this year's flu season. It's a good time to call to mind three common-sense suggestions from the Diocesan Office for Worship: 1) When you're seriously sick, stay home. Return to church when you have recovered. Since the obligation to attend Mass is a serious one, absenting oneself from Mass must therefore correspond to an equally serious reason for doing so. 2) If you're coughing, wheezing, or sneezing, don't drink from the Cup of Precious Blood. Christian charity demands that we do nothing that would discourage others from partaking of Holy Communion. 3) You may exchange the sign of peace in a manner that minimizes physical contact. As Ben Franklin so famously said: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

On Saturday the Church celebrates the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter the Apostle. The gospel reading for this feast is taken from Chapter 16 of Matthew's Gospel; when Jesus puts the question directly to his disciples: "But who do you say that I am?", Peter confesses Jesus as the Christ. Jesus attributes this profound statement of faith as a gift of grace and proclaims him to be "rock" and further declares that he will give Peter "the keys to the king of heaven", thus signifying Peter's authoritative leadership of the Church. This is the focus of this feast, which can be traced to least the fourth century and has its roots in the ancient Roman commemoration of dead relatives and friends, or Parentalia, celebrated each year from February 13-22, where a chair, or cathedra, was left empty for particular deceased persons. Since the date of St. Peter's death is not known, it came to be commemorated on February 22, eventually becoming a celebration of his taking pastoral responsibility of the Church of Rome. Our feast, then, is not a celebration of a piece of furniture but a reminder that the office is greater than the man who fills it. [2013 Sourcebook for Sundays, Seasons, and Weekdays, LTP, p. 107]

Holy Family & St. John Faith Formation & Confirmation Preparation

Sunday, February 16th: NO FAITH FORMATION
Sunday, February 23rd 9:00 AM: Regular Faith Formation

In this Jubilee Year, Pope Francis has told us to pray constantly! And with Lent approaching and our focus shifting to the three pillars of praying, fasting, and almsgiving, our FF students created beautiful prayer spaces to take home. Students were encouraged to find a special place for them to create a quiet place to spend in prayer with our Lord! Fantastic work!

COME TO AN OUT OF THE WAY PLACE...

Jesus said to the apostles after they had just returned from the mission, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." We have found that place. St. Paul of the Cross Spiritual Center, Pittsburgh, rooted in the Passionist tradition, provides a moving retreat experience that draws people back each year.

JOIN US FOR OUR MEN'S WEEKEND: MARCH 28TH TO 30TH
"PILGRIMS OF HOPE" WILL BE THE THEME

The weekend will include presentations on the retreat theme, workshops & conferences, fellowship, personal reflection, prayer time, and meals. Dress is casual. Attendance for scheduled events is voluntary, and we invite you to make the retreat your own! Bed linens, towels, pillows and blankets provided. Won't you join us as we recharge spiritually, mentally and physically!
